Investment partnership for 1 billion euros, Germany and Russia unite at the Investments Congress in Berlin on February 18! Or how to invest up to 50% per annum!

Finding an investments is quite a challenge for a business. The main reason is the negligible number of people potentially willing to invest with ease in the project!

By the way, there is one small paradox: there are a lots of people who want to invest, but there are very few people who are really willing to invest in a project, take risks, and give their hard-earned money and therefore it is not so easy to find investors in projects. And to find projects themselves is not easy as it seems! Not easy, but possible! If you wish, you can achieve everything you desire. However, where to look for an investor and profitable projects?

The organizers of the International Congress of Real Estate and Investments do not have such a question, because only the most interesting and perspective companies, unusual projects with a yield of up to 50% per annum, young promising businessmen, whose potential needs achievement and support, are invited to cooperate.

One of such businessmen from Russia, who aroused the interest of the International Congress of Real Estate and Investments, is Andrey Valerievich Golt, an entrepreneur, investor, founder of the «Golt Capital company» which conducted audits of more than 100 projects in 2018.

“We help projects to attract turn-key money, where we take the project completely and run it until we receive an investment, helping projects this way. We have attracted more than 20 million rubles at 50% per annum for our investors for January 2019, and more than 5 projects are at the stage and expect 200 million euros! And we are taking it to the Congress! – Andrei Golt commented – We are eternally grateful to the International Real Estate and Investments Congress or such a unique opportunity – participation in exhibitions and conferences, as an honorary expert, because such trust from the largest and one of the most significant and authoritative among specialized forums in Europe is a weighty confirmation of the quality of our activities, the reliability of cooperation with "Golt capital".

What advantages, besides the obvious ones, will this partnership bring?

1. More than 300 professionals in investments and projects from whom you can get free advice!
2. More than 100 selected, packed and verified by analysts projects!
3. Over 200 objects for investment in construction; foreign real estate, business projects, numerous innovative developments and much more;
4. New profitable projects from 100,000 euros and more than 1 billion euros.
4. Partners from 30 countries around the world! Acquaintance with investment professionals, real estate market and immigration services from all over the world.
5. Additional customers from related areas by combining similar areas in one event.

“Thanks to the cooperation with «Golt capital», we received an excellent opportunity to attract new projects from Russia up to 1 billion euros, exchange experience and present our products to more potential buyers, investors and market professionals. This is an innovative European approach that will improve business efficiency, negotiations with partners, as a result companies will be able to find loyal investors, and investors will have proven projects. – Anna Stukkert says, organizer of the International Real Estate and Investements Congress and Investments – Indeed, this is our main task - to help developers, investors, businessmen ... each participant of the Congress to find a solution to their tasks: investors will have the exclusive opportunity to compare the profitability of various investments in real estate and cryptocurrencies, securities and precious metals, antiques and film industry and all - at the same place. Companies with high development potential that require investments, will be able to present their product and find their consumer or investor. To people who are involved in charity will be able to find projects that need their support”.
