VIII INTERNATIONAL INVESTMENT CONGRESS

The 6th in-person edition of CC Forum "Investment in Sustainable Development" will take place on 6 July 2021 in Monte-Carlo under the High Patronage of HSH Prince Albert II of Monaco in partnership with International Investment Congress 2021. The event referred by some journalists as "green Davos" will be traditionally attended by high net worth individuals, policy makers, members of royal families and world celebrities.

The event will be followed by 7th edition of CC Forum in London in October 2021. 5 April saw the letter of intention of signing the agreement about creating the alliance of the biggest investment funds as well as the plan of development up until 2030. 6th edition of CC Forum & International Investment Congress will be a platform uniting the owners of multi-million assets represented by the alliance.

The overall amount of investment is circa 2,4 billion USA dollars which is to make it one of the world's largest pools of capital. The participants' investment portfolios have a large spectrum across all sectors of the world economy. "The Alliance's investors are listening to the science which is guiding us towards sustainability", Ms Anna Stukkert, President of International Investors Congress says. "Extracting profit should be incorporated into a larger agenda which should include resolving environmental issues whilst emphasising the social problems. Both principles should be at the heart of the modern corporate strategies. Emerging technologies like blockchain and AI can play a significant part in fighting some of the existential issues we are all facing today", according to Mr Max Studennikoff, Chairman of CC Forum.

As aptly said by Albert Einstein, "a crisis of any nature can provide amazing opportunities". Indeed, even the hard times we are all going through today can be considered as a catalyzer towards rethinking the global paradigm and building a more sustainable world.

CC Forum is a global platform on which governments present their initiatives, where scientists showcase their discoveries, where big and small companies make global statements and where the savviest of the investors connect to the brightest of startups. CC Forum covers a wide range of issues related to investment insustainability including Climate Change, Government Strategies, Green Energy, Waste Management, Healthcare, Education, Finance, Emerging Technologies, Philanthropy and Social Inclusion.

CC Forum tagged by some journalists as a green Davos will feature four core ideas:

- Investment solutions to environmental issues;
- Social impact
- Profit-making
- Prospects and business opportunities during and post Covid19

German companies can present their latest developments in this area, and Indian companies can find potential partners among them. "It was a big step for us and the result of a long analytical process. We have been bearing this idea for about 2.5 years. The fact is that Germany and India have accumulated over 10 years of experience, own efficiency developments and a pool of clients.

For each of us there was a question of further development, and we realized that we can make a leap forward only together. By combining management and financial capabilities, warehouses, customer base and business process, we have obtained cooperation of Indian and German entrepreneurs",- said Govind Balakrishna Raju, Founder @ Group of Companies.
